CLARENCE
JAZZ
FESTIVAL 2020

Clarence Jazz Festival is an eight-day music festival that brings Hobart's Eastern Shore to life during the warm evenings of late summer. Now in its 24th year, the Festival is back with a fresh palette and a new focus on diversity and boundary-pushing jazz, whilst continuing to inspire with initiatives that engage local artists and musicians.

Clarence Jazz Festival 2020 Ambassador: Dan Barnett

Dan Barnett, son of the legendary Sydney bassist Cliff Barnett, began his musical life as a trombonist and quickly developed a love for singing. He has since carved out an enviable reputation on the Australian music scene, working and recording with some of the greats, as well as being a renowned bandleader of both big band and small groups.

Dan will be jamming with most of the bands during Clarence Jazz Festival and performing with his Allstars band of Liam O'Leary, Hamish Houston and Kelly Ottaway during the finale.

Clarence Jazz Festival 2020 Artist-in-Residence: Alan Young

Alan Young was born in Aberdeen, Scotland in 1980 and came to Tasmania with his family at age 7, where he now lives and works. He graduated with a Masters of Fine Art (Research) at UTAS School of Creative Arts, and then in 2005 Alan won the Moorilla scholarship (Mona) and in 2007 he was awarded an artist residency at St Vincent's Hospital in Melbourne. His work is a cocktail of autobiographical and imagined themes rendered, often playfully, in paint.

Alan has created two artworks JAZZ WITH IT and GETTING JAZZEY which are incorporated into the striking new festival brand.

Clarence Jazz Festival Scholarship Program

Introducing our 2020 Scholars:

Billie Raffety – Vocals
Elijah Davies – Guitar
Sebastian Folvig – Bass

Clarence Jazz Festival is dedicated to developing the next generation of young Tasmanian musical talent through its annual scholarship program. The scholarship program is delivered in partnership with the University of Tasmania's Conservatorium of Music.

Billie, Elijah and Sebastian are all students at Elizabeth College, they have each received six months of weekly private tuition with UTAS Conservatorium tutors. They'll be performing on Sunday 23 February at 2pm along with Randall Muir, Liam O'Leary, Hamish Houston and Festival Ambassador Dan Barnett.

Wallace

(NZ/UK)

Headlining the 2020 Festival, New Zealand/UK artist Wallace is a refreshing talent whose music is a mosaic of jazz, blues, hip-hop and soul. Her trademark jazz-influenced, soulful vocals and magnetic presence are a marker of a dynamic artist. She vibrantly creates music that showcases her absorbing and clever song writing. Her lyrics are often influenced by literature, evident through the intricate wordplay she weaves to create poignant stories.

Her talents have seen her working with Dutch legends Kroak & Smoak, Australian hip-hop staples Thundamentals, touring and creating with young Zambian born, Australian-based rapper Sampa The Great, laying vocals over beats by Adventures of Godriqez, and working closely with producer Simon Cohen (producer of Justin Bieber's global #1 Song "Love Yourself").

Friday 21
& Saturday
22 Feb

Jazz Lounge at Rosny Farm
8.30pm Tickets $30

The Shuffle Club (VIC)

Friday 21 &
Saturday 22 Feb

Jazz Lounge at Rosny Farm
6.30pm Tickets $25

Despite being a firm fixture in the Melbourne music scene for close to ten years, the Shuffle Club are still able to surprise those who know them whilst blowing the minds and feet of those who are new to the experience. Their style is most easily described as a hot blend of jazz, swing, blues, and boogie but that hardly does justice to their raw energy and enthusiasm, the kind of energy that will bring you to your feet and onto the dance floor before you know what's happening.

A night out with The Shuffle Club will find you caught up in a world of beautiful mayhem, and if you are lucky you may even find yourself used as part of the percussion section.

Uncomfortable Science with Lachlan Mitchell (VIC) Saturday 22 Feb

Jazz Lounge at Rosny Farm
2.30pm Tickets $15

For the first time in Tasmania, Melbourne's most incredible jazz improv event Uncomfortable Science comes to Clarence Jazz Festival 2020 led by Lachlan Mitchell. Lachlan is a guitarist, vocalist, composer and visual artist originally from Brisbane and now recently relocated to Melbourne, where he has played with the likes of Paul Bender and Simon Mavin (Hiatus Kaiyote), Hudson Whitlock (Cactus Channel) and Donny Stewart (Jazz Party).

For Uncomfortable Science, Lachlan, armed with a whiteboard and pen, directs an improvised jam session one chord away from ambiguity with an ever-changing cast of local heroes curated for Clarence Jazz Festival 2020 including:

“One of the most incredible live performances I’ve seen”

Gilles Peterson (BBC Radio 6 Music)

“A genius”

Nai Palm (Hiatus Kaiyote)

Blossom Dearie Tribute by Sharny Russell (VIC)

Saturday 22 &
Sunday 23 Feb

Jazz Lounge at Rosny Farm
Sat 12.30pm Sun 1pm Tickets $20

Sharny Russell is one of Australia's most seasoned and respected jazz musicians, known for her compelling originals and arrangements, joyful stage presence and wonderful intimacy with the audience. Sharny is arguably one of Australia's elite scat singers. When it comes to Blossom Dearie and Sharny Russell, there is an affinity that can't be ignored.

In her early 20s Sharny was constantly likened to the iconic, almost cult figure of the French and American jazz worlds, who was known for performing her quirky songs for delighted audiences in small jazz clubs. Sharny thrills with wild scatting escapades and pulsing Latin rhythm forays, but she can still turn out a Blossom tune that closely resembles the real thing.

Sky Voltage (VIC)

Sunday 23 Feb

Jazz Lounge at Rosny Farm
3.30pm Tickets $20

Sky Voltage's repertoire is composed by Yusake Akai (AKA Ysk). Desperately trying to pleasantly shock his audiences through creative compositions and shredding numerous guitar solos, Ysk has been leading various iterations of the ensemble since 2017. The band currently consists in a trio format of Ysk on guitar/voice, Hannah Macklin on bass/voice and Javier Fredes on congas.

Sky Voltage has previously hosted international mavericks such as Bassidi Kone (Mali), Swooping Duck (AU), Panga Hechavaria (Cuba), Myka Wallace (AU) and Scott McConnachie (AU) as its members. The songs of Sky Voltage are sung in three languages so far, namely Japanese, English and Portuguese. These songs are written and performed in an attempt to provide a calm state of wonder with burning and quaking qualities beneath.
